

DECLARATION TO ACCOMPANY FINAL SELF-STUDY

The chief academic officer of the University of Puerto Rico and the chief executive of the Master of Information Sciences program declare that:

1. The academic unit offering the program for which accreditation by the American Library Association is sought, does not discriminate in recruitment, admissions, or financial aid for students; nor in appointments, promotions, or pay of faculty and support staff based on age, ancestry, color, creed, disability, gender, individual lifestyle, marital status, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation.
2. Further, I acknowledge and agree that a review of the program is scheduled for a visit and agree to proceed according to the procedures established by the Committee on Accreditation and described in the document Accreditation Process, Policies and Procedures (AP3).
3. To the best of my knowledge, the information contained in the self-study is accurate and reliable with respect to the program for which accreditation is being sought and with respect to the institution that offers that program.
